Step 4. Read payment and refund policies:

- Full tuition and registration fee is due with application. Registration application and complete payment must be sent by June 30, 2008. Applications sent after June 30, 2008 will be subject to a $35 late fee. Students will not be permitted to check in on the first day of school without receipt of full payment.
- Cancellations made up to 10 days prior to the start of school are subject to a full refund, minus a $50/child nonrefundable tuition deposit (part of tuition).
- Cancellations made less than 10 days prior to camp are subject to forfeiture of 50% of full tuition fee. In all cases, monies withheld as a result of a cancellation may be applied towards tuition for the following year for the same student, or a member of that student's immediate family.
- Students leaving the program early due to injury or for any other reason will be issued a partial tuition credit which may be used at any time against tuition for the following year by the same student, or a member of that student's immediate family. Absolutely no refunds for early departure.
- This camp must comply with regulations of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and be licensed by the local board of health.
- Copies of background checks, the health care policy and procedures for filing grievances will be sent upon request.

Step 5. Application will not be processed without full payment and signature of parent or guardian

I hereby certify that my son/daughter is in good general health and has my permission to participate at Champion Soccer School. I also give permission for him/her to be taken off the Wayland High School grounds for supervised outings (conditioning exercises etc.) and agree that any photograph or video taken at a Champion Soccer School session may be used for promotional purposes. I understand and accept Champion Soccer School's payment and refund policy.
